

As a resident in TN I feel the FCC should allow Local Number Portability as it is good for the consumer and gives me the choice to take my number if I decide to change service carriers.